Nice top line though margin squeezing

Key points:

- > Top line to be driven by geographical expansion.
- Extra momentum for FY03/09F from acquisition of Golden Hans.
- Operating margin under pressure.
- ➤ Earnings forecast penciled down but at 25.1% growth rate for the next three years.
- ➤ Lower target price to HK$13.60 with more conservative valuation assumptions.

FY03/08A results recap

Summary. Turnover surged 59.7% to RMB1,915.6m, driven by strong growth of each individual business segment (catering services: up 48.4% to RMB1,383.2m, Chinese restaurants: up 18.1% to RMB275.1m, convenient food: up 93.0% to RMB65.9m) and acquisition of Golden Hans theme restaurant chain in Nov 2007 (generated RMB191.4m turnover). Blended gross margin slightly improved 0.9pcp to 58.9%. However operating margin squeezed from 36.2% to 30.3% due to substantial increase in operating expenses. Consequently, net profit increased 18.1% to RMB411.0m.

Forward Looking

Top line. We expect geographical expansion to remain as a major driver to top line.

According to our understanding, China's catering market is still very fragmented, presenting ample growing room for professional catering service. Fuji, as one of leading catering services providers in the PRC, has expanded its coverage from two cities in FY12/05A to around seven in FY12/08A. Daily output (at the end of each fiscal year) rose from 100,000 sets of meal to 750,500 accordingly. The company is considering tapping into new markets such as Wuhan, Fujian and Jiangxi. We expect its daily output to grow by 18,000 – 20,000 sets each year for the coming three years.

- □ Operation of Chinese restaurant started early in 2000. By the end of FY03/08A, the company had nine Chinese restaurants. Considering the keen competition and high reliance on professionals (e.g. chefs), we reckon it is difficult to expand this business rapidly and expect the company to open 1 2 new stores each year.
- □ In Nov 2007, Fuji acquired 60.0% interest in Sky Charm, which owns Golden Hans theme restaurant chain. Since then six new stores had been opened and total number reached 39 in FY03/08A. We think this theme restaurant chain, by serving standardized Brazilian barbeque food, carries better growth potential than Chinese restaurants. The company plans to add 18 20 new stores in the next one or two years.
- □ Convenience food division is still small, though segmental revenue near doubled in FY03/08A to RMB65.9m. The company observes strong demand for convenience food and intends to open 4 5 "123" supermarkets in FY03/09F to boost this business.

Gross margin. Blended gross margin improved mildly by 0.9pcp in FY03/08A to 58.9%. Possible reasons include: 1) the company's ability in passing on incremental raw materials costs, which has been multiply mentioned by the management; 2) optimization of cost structure; 3) change of sales mix. We expect gross margin to maintain relatively steady in the future, declining only mildly because of more contribution from lower-margin convenience food segment.

Operating margin. Operating margin dropped substantially from 36.2% to 30.3%. All operating expenses items recorded dramatic increases, accompanied by the high inflation in China. We see inflation a continuous but moderated issue this year and reckon that operating margin will squeeze further. On a segmental basis,

- □ Catering services division operating margin shrank 1.8pcp to 33.2% in FY03/08A. We expect it to decline another 1.2pcp in FY03/09F.
- □ Chinese restaurant division operating margin narrowed from 28.9% one year before to 18.3%, which, however, is still higher than peer companies. We assume operating margin will drop to low-teen level this year.
- □ Theme restaurant division operating margin was 21.4% in FY03/08A. The integration of theme restaurant with Fuji's existing businesses will largely enhance its bargaining power against suppliers. Nevertheless, we expect its operating margin to decline backed by the similar consideration applied to Chinese restaurant division.
- □ Convenience food division it booked RMB15.8m operating loss in FY03/08A, versus RMB17.8m profit in FY03/07A. In view of the expanding top line, we expect this segment to approach break-even in FY03/09F.

Forecast and valuation

Earnings Forecast. Despite the in-line earnings in FY03/08A, we wrote down our FY03/09F and FY03/10F forecast by 13.4% and 19.2%, respectively, mainly because of lower-than-expected operating margin in FY03/08A and higher tax expenses. We estimate the company's turnover will grow at a CAGR of 31.8% from FY03/08A to FY03/11F while net profit at 25.1%. With narrowing operating margin, any slow-down in top-line growth will be amplified and reflected in bottom line.

Target price cut but maintain BUY. Considering the change of overall market environment, we also adopt a more conservative 13.5% discount rate (4.7% risk-free interest rate plus 8.8% market risk premium) to derive our new target price, which is HK$13.60 (old target price: HK$21.54). We maintain our BUY recommendation mainly for Fuji's already set-up market position, which grounds the company to benefit from the industry consolidation.
